KRISTA KHONE
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

2022 HIGHLIGHTS

- Hired executive director Krista Khone in March.
- Updated financial accounting system to QuickBooks.
- Switched donor database to Little Green Light, which integrates with QuickBooks, allowing for more accurate financial record-keeping and data tracking.
- Launched a new website: RogersPEF.org
- Recognized Gloria Hopper, Gary Jackson, Clarice Strode Moore and Phillip Martin as Wall of Distinction honorees and Loyd Phillips and Cathy Davis as Legacy Award recipients.
- Partnered with Ozark Beer Company for the 2nd annual Ozark Cardboard Regatta in June.
- Hosted the 6th annual golf tournament in September.
- Created the Northwest Arkansas Public Education Co-Op consisting of the Bentonville, Fayetteville, Rogers and Springdale Education Foundations. The Co-Op will allow the four foundations to share resources and create partnerships for community-led opportunities that will result in state-of-the-art regional education initiatives/programs and increase each foundation's impact.
- Received significant funding to support the mission of the NWA Education Co-Op.
- Partnered with Kendra Scott and Whataburger for fundraising events.
- Implemented the SmarterSelect grant software program to help streamline the grant process.

GRANTS BY THE NUMBERS

"We are so fortunate to live in a community that understands the importance of education; they are extremely supportive of the Foundation's efforts to assist our teachers. Everything we do is an effort to raise funds for teacher grants. The impact of these grants can be felt throughout the district and the community."

-Jaci Uecker
